

WE REVIEW!

Best of the web

Always on the lookout for something new, my choice of websites this month includes a fair trade source of Tanzanian rubies, a precious metal specialist, a multitool for everyone, plus a specialist chainmaille supplier. By Lesley Rands

FAIRTRADE RUBY MINE

WWW.RUBYFAIR.COM

Serious jewellers take note! Rubyfair is a unique partnership between British Jewellers and Tanzanian Miners where the miners' welfare, the environment and ecology of the Southern Tanzania landscape are their top priorities, along of course with a fair price for all their customers. You can buy unheated and untreated rubies facets and cabochons along with sapphires cabochons safe in the knowledge that both the miners and the land are given due care and reward. Sounds like everyone is a winner!
